

BRUNCH AT PUNCH

Every Saturday and Sunday

☉ Punch's Breakfast "An English full breakfast"

20

Crispy bacon, sunny side up, wild mushrooms,
English pork sausage, toasted brioche

A small man with a big appetite, Mr Punch starts everyday with a healthy mix of his personal favourites. The toasted brioche is comfortably accompanied by crisp bacon, juicy wild mushrooms and flavorsome English pork sausages.

Judy's Plate "A continental choice"

Danish, homemade granola, vanilla yoghurt, fresh fruit bowl

Nothing tastes better than a mother's cooking, and the same goes for this homely plate. The homemade granola coupled with vanilla yoghurt and honey is the perfect combination you never knew you wanted, while the croissant teleports you right back to your mom's kitchen.

Seaside omelet "Lobster, eggs and toast"

28

Boston lobster, scrambled eggs, gruyere cheese, toasted brioche

One does not simply mention Mr Punch without giving a tribute to his seaside days. This specialty omelet paints an idyllic day by the beach, appreciating the fresh sweetness of the Boston lobster, further enhanced by gruyere cheese and a Grand Marnier flamberge.

The Sinful "The Devil's French toast"

Nutella, peanut butter, vanilla ice-cream, rice-krispies banana balls

Definitely not one for the weak-hearted (literally), the devil's breakfast features thick brioche slapped with the savory goodness that is Nutella + peanut butter, topped off with vanilla ice-cream to wash it all down. The rice-krispies banana balls packs a delightful flavour reminiscent of your childhood days.

☉ Toby's Choice "Eggs Benedict with choice topping"

18

Sour dough, avocado hollandaise, Prosciutto Parma/
Earl Grey cured salmon

The apple of everyone's eye, Toby is the most pampered of the lot. Who else will get to choose between the delicate Prosciutto Parma, or a uniquely-cured salmon, to go with the classic eggs benedict? The avocado hollandaise makes devouring this less sinful, lightly holding all the flavours together.
