Pisco cocktails

Pisco is distilled in the Elqui Valley 107 km east of La Serena, which is 1300 metres above sea level. This liquor is distilled from muscat grapes and is considered the national drink of Chile.

La Mama's own Pisco Sour (Chile) £6.50

Pisco Sour is the most common way to drink pisco. It is made with fresh lime juice, icing sugar and Chilean pisco. It is traditionally served in a champagne glass. We recommend that you start every great dinner with a glass!

El Capitan (Chile) £6.50

Otherwise known as the Pisco Manhattan! If you are more of a classic Manhattan drinker then you must give El Capitan a try! Two part pisco and one part sweet martini, it is served in a martini glass garnished with a sweet cherry.

Chilcano Peruvian Mojito (Peru) £6.50

This is a simple but classic Peruvian summer cocktail. It comprises pisco, fresh mint and lime wedges served in a tall glass filled with ice, topped with ginger ale. Finished with a sprig of mint.

Classic cocktails

Caipirinha (Brazil) £6.50

If you're out dancing at Rio's carnival there's no doubt you will be drinking a Caipirinha. Cachaça, a distilled spirit made from sugar cane juice, is combined with fresh lime and fine brown sugar. This drink is sure to make your cheeks rosy!

Espresso Martini (UK)

The perfect pick me up cocktail! Fresh espresso coffee shaken with kahlua, sugar syrup and a choice of:

Classic vodka £6.50

Diplomatico rum £7.00

Monkey Shoulder whisky £6.50

Mojito (Cuba) £6.50

The mojito was born in Havana, Cuba. There are many variations of the drink. We however use the classic recipe of mint, rum, sugar, lime, ice and soda. No fuss, just lovely and refreshing to drink.

Margarita (Mexico) £6.50

Everyone knows the Margarita, that refreshing drink that can be made in so many ways. The classic recipe is tequila, triple sec and lime juice served in a salted rimmed martini glass.

Margarita de Canela (Mexico) £6.50

Just swap the lime juice for orange juice and the salt for canela (cinnamon). It's a great way to drink tequila!

Pitchers

Sangria (Spain) £14.95 for the jug

Sangria is one of the most popular drinks in Spain, great for sharing. The recipe we use consists of full bodied red wine, rum, sweet vermouth, triple sec, orange and lemonade. Served in a jug filled with ice and fresh lime.
